[The Concluſion of the Letters begun in our laſt.]

Extract of Letters from John Hughes, Eſq; appointed Diſtributor of Stamps for Pennſylvania, to Benjamin Franklin, Eſq; Agent for ſaid Province, and by him laid before the Parliament.

Philadelphia, September, 1765.

YOU are now, from Letter to Letter, to ſuppoſe each may be the laſt that you will receive from your old Friend, as the Spirit or Flame of REBELLION IS GOT TO A HIGH PITCH AMONGST THE NORTH-AMERICANS; and it ſeems to me, that a Sort of Frenzy or Madneſs has got ſuch Hold of the People of all Ranks, that I fancy ſome Lives will be loſt before this Fire is put out. I am at preſent much perplext what Courſe to ſteer, for as I have given YOU Reaſon to expect I WOULD ENDEAVOUR TO PUT THE ACT IN EXECUTION, and you no Doubt have informed the Commiſſioners, I cannot, in Point of Honour go back, until Something or other is done by the People to render it impoſſible for me to proceed.—— But perhaps, when a Mob is on Foot, my Intereſt may fall a Sacrifice to an infatuated Multitude; and I know of no Way to prevent it but abſolutely declaring off, as all the Reſt have done to the Eaſtward; but as yet I cannot prevail upon myſelf, notwithſtanding the Threats of ſome, and the Perſuaſions of others, to do an Act that appears to me neither loyal nor reputable.

I have hitherto kept Matters eaſy, by ſaying, I had nothing to reſign, for I have neither received any Commiſſion, or any other Kind of Writing from the Stamp-Office; but when it is known I have received my Commiſſion, I fancy I ſhall not eſcape the Storm of Preſbyterian Rage, and as Captain Friend is expected every Day, my Doom will ſoon be known; but whether I may live to inform you, is yet in the Womb of Futurity.

By Governor Franklin's Letters, and by my laſt, you will ſee that Mr. Cox has reſigned the Stamp-Office for New-Jerſey; and there is ſcarce a Day goes over my Head but many People call upon me to reſign, and ſay I am an Enemy to North-America, if I do not; but ſince I am now DIPT, and muſt abide by Conſequences, BE THEY WHAT THEY WILL, I ſhall be exceedingly obliged to you, if it is conſiſtent with your Judgment, to recommend my Son Hugh for Mr. Coxe's Succeſſor. My Son is married, and ſettled in New-Jerſey, has a good Eſtate, both real and perſonal, and can give any Security that may be required. I am the more induced to aſk this Favour, as I think there will be no Difficulty in putting the Act in Execution in that Province; and if my Property, and perhaps my Life, may be loſt in this Province, my Son, I hope, will be the better for the Office in that Province, which may be ſome Compenſation for what Property may be loſt out of the Family.

September 10. Our Aſſembly met Yeſterday; and this Day a Majority of 25 againſt 24, were for ſending a Committee to New-York, to meet the Committee of Boſton, on the firſt of October, where they inſinuated there will be Men ſent from every Colony, in Order to unite, and become, as they expreſs it, like a Bundle of Rods, alluding to the Fable of the old Man and his Sons. This Scheme, or Plan of Union, is not only begun, but is indefatigably puſhed forward by the PRESBYTERIANS principally.

September 11. This Afternoon Captain Friend arrived, and as he ſays he has no Stamp-Papers on board, all ſeems pretty quiet at preſent. The Aſſembly have named Joſeph Fox, George Bryan, John Morton, and John Dickinſon, as a Committee to go to the Congreſs at New-York.

September 12. Our Clamours run very high, and I am told my Houſe ſhall be pulled down, and the Stamps burnt; to which I give no other Anſwer, than that I will defend my Houſe at the Riſque of my Life. I muſt ſay, that all the ſenſible Quakers behave prudently.

September 16. in the Evening. Common Report threatens my Houſe this Night, as there are Bonfires and Rejoicings for the Change of the Miniſtry.——The ſober and ſenſible Part of the People are doing every Thing towards being in Readineſs to ſuppreſs a Mob, if there ſhould be any Intention of riſing. I for my Part am well armed with Fire-Arms, and am determined to ſtand a Siege. If I live till To-morrow Morning I ſhall give you a further Account; but as it is now about Eight o'Clock, I am on my Guard, and only write this between Whiles, as every Noiſe and Buſtle of the People calls me off.

Nine o'Clock. Several of my Friends that patrole between my Houſe and the Coffee-Houſe, came in juſt now, and ſay the Collection of Rabble begins to decreaſe viſibly in the Streets, and the Appearance of Danger ſeems a good Deal leſs than it did.

Twelve o'Clock. There are now ſeveral Hundreds of our Friends about the Streets, ready to ſuppreſs any Mob if it ſhould attempt to riſe, and the Rabble are diſperſing.

September 17. Five in the Morning. We are all yet in the Land of the Living, and our Properties ſafe, thank God.

Extract of a Letter from Joſeph Galloway, Eſq; dated at Philadelphia, September 20, 1765, to Benjamin Franklin, Eſq; Agent.

THE publick Papers will inform you of the preſent diſtracted State of the Colonies, and the many Outrages and Riots that have been OCCASIONED BY A DISLIKE TO THE STAMP-ACT; all which have been incited by the principal Men of the Colonies where they have been committed. Meaſures have not been wanting to create the SAME TEMPER in the People here, in which ſome have been very active. In Hopes to prevent their ILL EFFECTS, I wrote a moderate Piece, ſigned Americanus, publiſhed here and at New-York, and ſince in Virginia; wherein you will ſee my Sentiments on the Subject. I am told it had a good Effect in thoſe Places, as well as here, being much approved by the moderate Part of the People. Yet we ſhould not have been free from Riots here, if another Method had not been taken to prevent them, viz. by aſſembling quietly, at the Inſtance of Mr. Hughes's Friends (and not by an Order from the Government of the City) near 800 of the ſober Inhabitants, poſted in different Parts, ready to prevent any Miſchief that ſhould be attempted by the Mob, which effectually intimidated them, and kept all tolerably quiet, only they burnt a Figure they called a Stamp-Man, and about Midnight diſperſed. Great Pains have been taken to PERSUADE and frighten Mr. Hughes into a RESIGNATION OF HIS OFFICE, but he continues FIRM, and will not reſign in any Manner that ſhall do Diſhonour to his Appointment; and I THINK WILL BE ABLE to put his Commiſſion in Execution, NOTWITHSTANDING THE EXAMPLES SET BY OTHER COLONIES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, JULY 1.

EVER ſince the 15th or 16th of laſt month, we have been entirely free from ſhocks of the earthquake, and by the goodneſs of God, enjoy at preſent a perfect tranquillity: But the damages done by this unhappy cataſtrophe to the inhabitants of this city are exceeding great, and will be felt a long time, notwithſtanding all the aſſiſtance they have received under this misfortune from the Grand Signior's generoſity and compaſſion. Beſides the large ſums of money that Monarch has diſtributed, he has taken extraordinary care to preſerve order, as much as poſſible, in the general conſternation and confuſion. The rubbiſh has been removed with ſurprizing expedition, and people laboured with no leſs activity in repairing the moſques, ramparts, baths, aqueducts, publick ſchools, and other edifices.

LONDON, AUGUST 8.

Advice has this week been received, that the Spaniards are erecting ſome ſtrong fortifications in the bay of Cadiz.

By letters received this week in town, Lord Clive was well at Bengal the 26th of February laſt.

Major Lawrence is ſoon expected home from the Eaſt-Indies.

It is aſſured that the new treaty of commerce concluded with the court of Peterſburgh, is very advantageous for taking off a large ſhare of Britiſh manufactures, which, by means of the Ruſſian caravans, lately eſtabliſhed at Peterſburgh and Moſcow, will be tranſported over land to the remoteſt parts of the empire.

Very recent letters from Conſtantinople make no mention of any freſh action having happened between the Turks and Georgians.

No reſolution, perhaps, which the French clergy have taken this great while, does them half the honour as that lately taken by their aſſembly to grant the unhappy Calas family a yearly penſion, independently of a preſent gratuity of a hundred Louis.

The laſt letters from St. John's, Newfoundland, mention, that upwards of ninety Mickemak Indians, who had been ſettled with the French at Miquelok, were gone over to Governor Hamilton of Placentia, who had concluded an advantageous treaty with their nation chiefly reſpecting the fur trade.

Laſt Saturday arrived in London the four Indian chiefs, with their ladies; they have taken a large houſe of Mr. Lowe, in Marybone-Town, where they will reſide ſome time for the benefit of the air: They are a very affable, humane ſort of people, and were all through the courſe of the laſt war with Sir William Johnſon in America. This evening they will be at Marybone gardens to hear the muſick, and view the new fireworks under the direction of Mr. Clitherow.

Orders are given for the Indian chiefs and women juſt arrived in town from America, to be ſupported at the government's expence during their ſtay here.

Extract of a letter from Genoa, July 9.

" Several particulars have been handed down here for ſome time paſt, as ſo many marks of a ſtrong animoſity, which it is pretended ſubſiſts between the chief of the Corſican rebels and the Count de Marbeuf, of which there is not even a ſhadow of probability. It is certain, that, in the treaty concluded between the court of France and the ſenate, his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty only engages to guard with his forces the Genoeſe places in that Iſle, to employ his mediation for bringing about an accommodation between the republick and the Corſicans, and leſtly to grant them his guaranty."

Auguſt 11. We hear his Grace the Duke of Grafton intends to have his firſt publick levee at the Cockpit, at Whitehall, on Thurſday next.

On Wedneſday laſt the Honourable Major-General Murray, Governor of Quebec, had the honour of being introduced to his Majeſty at St. James's, and met with a moſt gracious reception.

Sir Alexander Grant, Baronet, an eminent Weſt-India merchant, and member of parliament, has obtained the grant of a conſiderable tract of fine land in the province of Eaſt-Florida.

By the Duke of Marlborough, Captain Wilſon, lately arrived in thirty days from the Havanna, there are certain accounts, that the flota which was expected there in April, was not arrived the 28th of June, and very uncertain when it would, orders having been ſent from Old Spain for their detention at La Vera Cruz. This muſt prove a great diſappointment to the merchants, as large remittances were expected in pieces of eight, cochineal, and other valuable commodities.

Auguſt 13. Yeſterday there was a grand board of treaſury at the Cockpit, Whitehall.

We hear, that the Marquis of Granby, will ſhortly be appointed Captain-General of his Majeſty's forces.

It is ſaid, that the Right Honourable the Earl of Chatham has purchaſed Grafton-Houſe in Old Bond-ſtreet, for the ſum of 12,000 l.

It is ſaid, that Lord Adam Gordon will be appointed governor of Jamaica, in the room of William Henry Lyttelton, Eſquire.

Auguſt 14. Yeſterday his Majeſty came from Richmond to St. James's, where there was a levee. The Right Honourable Lord Chatham had a conference with his Majeſty before the levee began.

Yeſterday there was another grand board of treaſury.

Yeſterday the Right Honourable the Marquis of Granby kiſſed his Majeſty's hand, on his being appointed Colonel of the firſt regiment of guards, Field-Marſhal and Commander in chief of all his Majeſty's forces, in the room of the Lord Viſcount Ligonier, who has reſigned.

We are told, that there has been tranſmitted from Senegal ſuch a detail of infractions, which private French traders have been guilty of, contrary to treaty in that part of the world, as will occaſion proper remonſtrances to be forthwith made to the court of Verſailles.

Private letters from Stockholm adviſe, that the late ſubſidy treaty was upon the point of being renewed between France and Sweden, the former having engaged to pay up all the arrears, on certain conditions which had not been made publick.

They write from Hanover, that ſeveral hundred emigrants had been engaged in that electorate for the new ſettlements in America.

This week two tranſport veſſels were taken up in the river, to ſail for Hamburgh, to take on board Palatines for Eaſt-Florida.

The Greek merchants at Vienna have received letters from Salonica, in Macedonia, where the great annual fair is held, which is frequented by the Greek traders of Trebiſonde, and in general of all Natolia. Theſe letters make no mention of the Victory ſaid to have been gained by Prince Heraclius over the Turkiſh forces: Some German politicians have hence inferred, that the Turks themſelves may have been the firſt authors of the report, in order the better to cover their deſigns againſt the Chriſtian nations; but to this it has been objected, that conſidering the preſent temper of the people at Conſtantinople, this inference does not appear probable; and it is the opinion of ſome perſons, that the ſilence of the letters with reſpect to Prince Heraclius may be accounted for in a different manner, namely, that the Greek inhabitants of Macedonia are cautious of mentioning any particulars concerning the troubles in Georgia, leſt they ſhould draw ſome ill conſequences on themſelves.

Auguſt 15. On Wedneſday laſt the Right Honourable the Earl of Egmont reſigned his place as firſt Lord of the admiralty.

And it is ſaid, that yeſterday the other Lords of the admiralty reſigned their places.

We hear that his Royal Highneſs Prince Henry Frederick, third brother to his Majeſty, who comes of age in November next, will certainly be created a Duke before the meeting of an auguſt aſſembly.

His Excellency Prince Maſſerano, the Spaniſh ambaſſador, had, on Wedneſday laſt, a conference of his Majeſty's principal ſecretaries of ſtate, ſaid to be on the ſubject of adjuſting our national differences with the court of Madrid.

Orders have been given for all the officers belonging to the regiments in garriſon at Gibraltar and Minorca to join their reſpective corps with all expedition.

Auguſt 16. Very agreeable advices have this week been received from the Right Honourable Lord Charles-Greville Montagu, Governor of South-Carolina, in regard to the cultivation in the ſettlements, their unanimity in councils, and the proſpect of a laſting cordiality with the Indian nations.

Yeſterday morning his Grace the Duke of Richmond ſet out, with a grand retinue, for Paris.

Yeſterday his Grace the Duke of Grafton had a numerous levee at the Cockpit, Whitehall.

Extract of a letter from Peterſburgh, July 1.

" Immediately after the concluſion of the grand and ſumptuous carouſal, executed on the 27th of laſt month, under the direction of Prince Iwanowitz Repnin, in the preſence of the Empreſs, the great Duke, and the whole court, with upwards of 4000 other perſons; the great judge of the exerciſes and the ſubalterns quitted the amphitheatre, erected oppoſite the palace, returned to the ſummer palace, and repaired to the hall of conference, in order to adjudge the prizes of the courſes. At the ſame time the quadrilles, to the number of four, united and marched along the principal ſtreets of the city to the great flaircaſe of the palace. They were introduced into the hall by the grand maſter of the ceremonies, each to the ſound of their reſpective muſick. The knights and ladies being ranged there in a ſemi-circle, the Field-Marſhal Count Munich, great judge of the exerciſes, accompanied with twelve other judges, and attended by the pages of the court, who bore the prizes on veſſels of gold, preſented himſelf in armour, in the hall of conference, and addreſſed the following diſcourſe to the knights and ladies: 'No one among 'you is ignorant, that not a year paſſes away, but it is 'marked with ſome effect of the indefatigable and materiel

"ceive of the Empress, your most gracious Sovereign, in "whatever may contribute to add to the splendor of the em"pire, to increase the prosperity of her subjects in general, "and to raise in particular those excellent qualities with "which the nobless of her kingdom are endued. This in"comparable Princess has chosen this day for giving an op"portunity to the most distinguished nobles of her empire, to "signalize their dexterity in the equestrian exercises of a "pompous carousal in a carousal, of which till now Russia "has exhibited no example. Who with me will not be struck "with astonishment; who, I say, filled with the most respect"ful sentiments, will not join his acknowledgements to mine "for so much goodness and attention? You, illustrious ladies "and knights, you have now given, in your exercises, proofs "of your birth, that you cannot but promise yourselves the "satisfaction and approbation of her Imperial Majesty, and "the grand Duke, and at the same time the general applause "of the publick."

"After this discourse the Count turned towards the Coun"tess Natalia-Petrowna-Tschernichew, the youngest of Count "Peter-Gregoriewitz-Tschernichew's daughter, and spoke "thus:

"You, Madam, said he, are the lady, to whom by au"thority of her Imperial Majesty I am charged to deliver the "first prize, (a valuable aigrette of brilliants) which you "have carried by your great address. Yes, it is to you, Ma"dam, that full of esteem and admiration, I am to make my "compliment of Felicitation on this preference which you have "just obtained, and on the right which her Majesty gives you "of distributing with your beautiful hands to all the ladies and "knights the prizes which are their due. For me, grown old "and heary under the banners of war in 65 years service, I "may boast myself to be the oldest soldier, and most aged Field-"Marshal in Europe. After having had the honour to conduct "the Russian troops to several Fields of battle where they have "reaped laurels, I look upon it as a very great reward, and "an increase of glory, that I have the pleasure, illustrious la"dies and knights, of being this day at once the witness and "chief judge of your noble exploits."

ST. JAMES's, AUGUST 12.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Hans Stanley his ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to the Empress of Russia.

WHITEHALL, AUGUST 12.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint William Campbell, Esq; commonly called Lord William Campbell, to be Captain-General and Governor in chief in and over his Majesty's province of Nova-Scotia in America.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint John Wentworth, Esq; to be Governor and Commander in chief in and over his Majesty's province of New-Hampshire in America.

ST. CHRISTOPHERS, September 6.

A particular Account of the Hurricane at Martinico. Translated from the French.

ST. PIERRE, August 21, 1766.

THIS Colony, which has often suffered by Tempests, has lately felt one of the severest ever known.——A dreadful Hurricane has alone been attended with worse Consequences than all those which it has felt since its first Establishment, and which will be a long Time irreparable.

On Wednesday the 13th of this Month, about 10 o'clock at Night, the Horizon began to darken, the Moon grew pale, and the Stars refused their usual Light; Heaven and Earth were hid from Sight, and every Thing wrapt up in profound Darkness: The North West Winds broke loose, the Clouds vomited Terrors mixed with Bitumen and Sulphur; in short, every Thing seemed to threaten an entire Dissolution of Nature. A frightful Noise was heard on all Sides, the Terror of which got the better of all. About Midnight it raged with yet greater Violence, and nothing could possibly resist its Fury. Here you might see a Wall thrown down, there a House buried in its Ruins; Infants in the Arms of their Mothers, who sought Refuge in those of their Husbands. Immediately all the Earth was observed to tremble, Men, Women, Children, Slaves, all, were willing to seek their Safety by Flight, but were prevented by Fear; at Length, every one believing their final Moment was at Hand, and not hoping to defer it, prostrated themselves, and joined each other in plaintive Cries and fervent Prayers.

The Horror of this dreadful Night was augmented by the Disasters of the Sea; the Waves, mingled with the Clouds, drove ashore and dashed to pieces all the Vessels in the Road, and drowned the Sailors, who sent forth lamentable Cries, but without Hopes of receiving the least Succour from the Land.

About Three in the Morning the Winds began to abate, and in a short Time the Day presented to the Eyes of a desolate People, the frightful Spectacle of all the Evils they had feared. The tattered Houses resembled only so many Pieces of slight Timber-work, the Streets were filled with Rubbish, and the Shore strewed with Carcases, the Paths were obstructed by Trees broken and torn up by the Roots; and the Rivers rolled down Rocks of a prodigious Size.—About Five o'Clock there was observed a thick Cloud which hung over the Mountain Pelo.

About Six the Winds were entirely appeased, the Sea no longer agitated, and this horrible Tempest was succeeded by an entire Calm, in the Heighth of which Balls of Fire were seen to proceed from the Bowels of the Earth, and dissipate directly in the Air, by which some are said to have lost their Lives.

There were wrecked in our Road, Brigantines, Schooners, Sloops, and Periaugres to the Number of 35, of which 28 were French, and seven English, besides twelve Canoes, or Passage Boats.

To these Misfortunes are added the most shocking News of the Country; there scarce remains upon all the Habitations around, any Tract of a Building, amongst the Ruins of which many of the Proprietors were crushed to pieces; Canes, Coffee, Cocoa, Bananas, and Cassada, were all torn up by the Roots, and destroyed. The exact Number of the Dead in this Quarter is not yet know, but to judge, by the Carcases taken out of the Rubbish, those found in the Surge of the Sea, and those who have not appeared since, it is computed to be about 90, and the maimed and wounded to double that Number.

The General had been since the Evening before, at Gaze Point, where he was exposed, with a great Deal of Risque, to all the Violence of the Hurricane; he returned this Morning; his Soul touched with the publick Calamity, caused him to use all Diligence possible for the Re-establishment of good Order, so necessary in such Circumstances. This is an exact Account of every Thing as it happened at St. Pierre, In surveying the Island we find every where almost the same Calamities, and some Places in a yet more dreadful Condition.

An Ordinance of the General on this Occasion.

"The Hurricane which so ravaged Martinico in the Night of the 13th and 14th Instant, having destroyed all the Provisions upon the Plantations, and the Inhabitants finding themselves, by this grievous Accident, entirely deprived of Nourishment for their Negroes, and even for the most Part of the Whites; It is our Duty to provide for their Wants by all Means possible, and to alleviate as much as lies in our Power, the Misfortunes with which this Colony has been oppressed.

"In this Situation there remains no other Remedy, than (and Necessity can admit of no Delay) to authorise all to seek Succour from Strangers, until France shall be able to supply us.

"It is through these pressing Motives, and in order to answer the Confidence his Majesty has placed and put in us, in intrusting to us the Government of this Colony, and by Virtue of the Power he has given us, that we resolve to permit the Introduction of foreign Flour and Biscuit, whether imported by Strangers or Frenchmen, who will choose to undertake it."

On the 19th the General departed hence for Fort-Royal, from whence he shortly intends for Jumise, or Great Moorne, and through all the Quarters of Capisterre, as far as Macauba, there to revive the dejected Spirits of the Inhabitants.

Here we cannot but take Notice of the generous Treatment of Captain Rose, of Bourdeaux, whose Schooner has been driven ashore. So far from taking Advantage of our general Misfortune, he has sold his Flour at the usual Price, and even distributed it amongst the more wretched, to be paid on his next Voyage, and declared he was happy that it was in his Power by these Means to shew the unfeigned Concern he felt for the Misfortunes of the Colony. Such candid Dealing could not fail of exciting the Gratitude of all the Inhabitants, who in Crowds assembled on the Beach, to raise his Vessel, in which they so far succeeded as to set her afloat without much Damage.

We have yet had no certain News from Guadaloupe, but if we may give any Credit to the Report of a Master of a Sloop, who had prepared for sailing the Evening before, and had but that Morning gained the Land, from which he had been driven out in the Night, it seems they have suffered greatly, though at the same Time have not been in so great Danger as we have. He mentions having seen seven Sloops ashore, and the Plantations in many Places greatly damaged.

At St. Lucie they have scarce felt the Violence of it, all their Loss amounting only to a few Banana Trees blown down in some Parts.

By Letters from Dominica, we hear that it has been felt with much less Violence than here, there having nothing been destroyed amongst all their Plantations, but a few Provisions, and three Periaugres, which were driven ashore.—The Borough Towns indeed have suffered a little.

An English Gentleman who left Barbados the 13th, so far from feeling any such Thing as a Hurricane, that he complains of an extraordinary Calm from his Departure until Thursday Night, when he says there sprung a little Breeze from the South East which brought him here.——A Sloop from Grenada, which passed by the Way of St. Vincents, give the same Account.

CHARLES-TOWN, OCTOBER 21.

ON Monday the 8th ult. the Hillsborough Packet, Capt. William Adams, with the Mail from Falmouth, arrived at St. Christophers, and sailed the Wednesday following for Jamaica, Pensacola, and this Port.

Wednesday last a fine new Ship built by Mr. Robert Watts, was launched at Beaufort; she is called the St. Helena, will carry near 1000 Barrels of Rice, and is said to be the best Ship ever built in this Province.

Accounts from Georgia inform us, that it hath been very sickly throughout that Province, and a vast Number of People have died within these six Weeks past.
